Lesa Nagle called the September 6, 2005, Recreation Committee Meeting To Order at 7:35PM.

Fred motioned to accept the minutes.

SUMMER SPECTACULAR RECAP

Everything went very well. We estimated about 500 -1,000 people were in attendance. WSEN and Letizia & the Z Band did a great job. The fireworks by TelStar Display Fireworks were wonderful as always. Sunshine Ice Cream Shop did well selling food, drinks & ice cream there.

FOUNDER’S DAY

Liz will ask Jack to call McLane’s to try to get a confirmation on a donation. Liz will contact TJ Sheehan’s to ensure everything is set for Anheuser-Busch’s donation. We need to make sure that the two large tents which we borrow from the Fire Dept aren’t too close together as they were last year – the ropes were overlapping and made it hard to walk through the each tent. Liz will order the rolls from Stroehman’s to be picked up on Saturday. We need to make sure to have ketchup, mustard, relish, along with bowls and spoons for serving those. Volunteers are hard to find this year, Committee members will try to find others to help out. Liz will talk to Jack about having Board Members volunteer to serve as well. Adel, Fred, Heather Cooper, Cathy and Lesa will all be available for Founder’s Day. Set-up will begin for them at 9am. The 50/50 Raffle at Founder’s will go to the American Red Cross’s Hurricane Relief fund, we will also have a box set aside for donations only for the same ARC Hurricane Relief.

WINE TASTING TRIP

The bus is reserved for the October 2nd Seneca Lake Wine Tasting Trip. It will be advertised in the next Reflections. Liz will call to check if we will stop for lunch anywhere. The bus cost is $35.00 per person, that does not include the tasting fee for each winery ($1-3 max per winery).

CHILDREN’S HALLOWEEN PARTY

Saturday, October 22nd – we will again have to parties, a 9:30am & an 11:00am – running for one hour each. We will order reflector necklaces from Oriental Trading as the craft. We will get candy as well as pencils, raisins and spider rings for prizes for the games. Liz will call Baker and churches for volunteers. Liz will also check to see what games we have for the party.

MYSTERY THEATER DINNER

Set for Saturday, November 5th – Liz will bring prices from Vicki’s to the next meeting – maybe have her do the desserts this year?

Meeting Adjourned at 8:45PM
